From the Crown

Unto the Mighty Kingdom of the Outlands do Hoegaarden and Chiara send greetings;

Although we are still shaking the dust out of our Estrella garb and gear, there are many Estrella memories we hope to never forget. Those wonderful visions of the Outlands filled our minds with experiences that were so incredible; it's hard to believe they were real. There were so many smiling faces and happy Outlanders everywhere we turned, and we hope you were having as much fun as we were. As crown after crown came forward to share tales of the people of our kingdom, we were so proud to be from the Outlands. Many of you gave with all of your heart, so each person living on the desert plains at Estrella War XX had the time of their lives also.

We did post a detailed list of thank you's to the Outlands list, but would like to add the names of those we wish to thank once again. We could not have been as successful at Estrella war without the following people; Duke Lycurgus, Duke Tomeki, Duchess Mina, Mistress Elizabeth O'Byrnne, Countess Eleanor, Lady Gwenyth Sastre, Mistress Bennett Murray, Countess Cainnleach, THL Gwendolyn MacIver, Lord Johannes, Baron Deotrich Hiltipard, Mistress Claudia, Caerthen Embroidery guild, Baroness Constance, Mistress Aldyth, Count Bela, Don Otteaux, Archery field set-up crew, Shire of Drygestan, The Huns and Bengals, Mistress Averil, THL Cristobal, Baron Roger, Duke Artan, Jarl Gunwaldt & Mistress Anne-Aliz, Outlands War Council, Sir Lavan, Lady Seuilla, Baroness Adina & friends, Duke Kynan, Lord Taliesin, Lady Branwen, Baron Kragon, Master Adam & Master Balthazar, Master Sylvanus & Lord Donovan, Warmin and House Belshire, Baroness Dovita, Countess Ileana and the entire Royal Retinue. As you can see, it takes quite a few wonderful people to make a successful war!

Estrella War XX was perhaps the most enjoyable time in our lives. It's so hard to believe how well we did in every aspect of war. The Outlands army marched through our valiant foes on the heavy field, driving our enemies before us. Kings from distant lands announced that the Outlands army was so incredibly impressive that at times they could only stand in awe of our legendary warriors. A statement was heard that the Outlands were giving free spear lessons all war. Needless to say, we won the Heavy Armored Combat war banner. Our rapier fighters were absolutely phenomenal, destroying units and reforming quickly, only to take down the next group of advancing foeman. Again, the Outlands and our allies brought home the Rapier war banner. The archers of the Outlands were deadly accurate, piercing the targets over and over. Combined with our ally's efforts, we also proudly display the Archery war banner within our halls. Our artisans came to the desert plains well prepared, bringing a large number of entries to the Arts and Sciences competition. The Outlands and Atenveldt together nearly swept the competition to claim the Arts and Sciences war banner. Though not official, we also claimed victory in the largesse and party categories. A special thanks to all of the Outlands artisans, who gave so many incredible gifts of largesse. The entire Knowne World thanks you for your skills and generosity. Without a doubt, our kingdom also stakes a claim to enjoying themselves the most. It was wonderful seeing our kingdom so happy.

We have had the opportunity to meet the most incredible, enthusiastic people in our travels. With so many new ideas and energy, we are blessed to be constantly branching out and reaching more people within our kingdom. The children's words in Dragonsspine, the science fair in al-Barran and the phenomenal support of the war council are all great examples of our kingdom working together, sharing thoughts and ideas to create a better experience for everyone.

In Gleann Medonach, we did name our heirs to the Stag thrones. Our new Prince and Princess of the Outlands will soon rule these mighty and wondrous lands. Please give them all the support they need in their time preparing for their coronation in Hawk's Hollow.

In April, we will be traveling to the land of the scorpion, in the Barony of al-Barran. On the 3rd day of the month, the event "Sworded Affaire" will attract some of the finest people within our kingdom to gather and enjoy a fabulous day of rapier fighting. The Outlands Kingdom Arts and Sciences competition will be held in the Barony of Caer Galen on the 17th. We hope that many people will travel and enter an item in the competition. We look forward to seeing all of the wonderful work created within our kingdom. Please bring your beautiful pieces of work for our entire kingdom to enjoy.

As the sun sets and the seasons change, our time upon the great Stag thrones draws closer to our final days. We thank you all for your support, kindness and laughter. Our travels through our lands have been full of love and generosity. If we could thank each of you individually, we would traverse our paths this reign once again to do so with all of our hearts. You have made us very proud to be your King and Queen of these fair Outlands.

In service to the mighty Kingdom of the Outlands,

Hoegaarden

A crash, like that of thunder heralding a spring rainstorm, is heard upon the wind across the Outlands. Our loyal steeds and their riders grow restless, with bits clinking in the stillness, before the opponents surge together to face one another again in the joust.

Let it be known that on the 24th day of the fourth month, being April, that there will be a tournament for equestrians held in the great Barony of al-Barran. This tournament will be held at intermediate and advanced levels only and will incorporate such skill at arms as jousting, mounted combat, and a hastiludes course (tipped weapons) which will include the quintain. Special authorizations are required for mounted combat and jousting. Everyone must be authorized prior to the day of the event. There will be no authorizations at the tournament- no exceptions.

Full heraldic barding is strongly encouraged. A limited number of horses are available and it is preferable that a rider expect to practice and compete on the same horse, so reservations and attendance at practice prior to the event are encouraged.

Please refer to the SCA Equestrian Handbook for more information on the 'tipped' weapons games for the hastiludes (javalin, pigsticking, ring tilt and quintain) and for mounted combat. The handbook can be found at http://www.sca.org/officers/marshal/combat/equestrian/index.html. Contact Lady Dubheasa for horse information and reservations as well as jousting authorization.

So gather your boots and polish your spurs for a grand display of pageantry and skill. Enjoy an afternoon at the German Equestrian High Tournament with blitzpferde und donnernde hoves!

Good gentles of the Outlands, Harken. The Shire of Windkeep invites all to attend our annual Banner Tourney to be held on Saturday, June 26, 2004 from 10:00 AM till 3:00 PM. Valiant fighters will contest on the field with an Outlands Banner as the prize for the most flamboyant and chivalrous fighter in the lists (there will probably be a prize for the winner too, but showmanship is what counts). There will also be prizes for best death, best bereavement, as well as a contest for the best banner. Fencers are welcome. In order to enter the list, you must present a banner to the Mistress of the Lists and display it on the field. The banner doesn't have to be your own. The banner can display personal arms, historical arms, or be just plain decorative. HERALDRY COUNTS. Fanfares and demonstrations before combat are encouraged.

This tournament is held in conjunction with Cheyenne Superdays 2004, which is an entertainment demonstration and craft fair held by the City of Cheyenne. It routinely draws 20,000 visitors each year. We ask all gentles to wear their finest tourney garb, bring their pavilions, misc, and arts displays, and show off the best of what our Society has to offer. There will be dancing for all interested, and an Arts and Sciences pavilion where artisans are encouraged to display and demonstrate their abilities.

Tourney Site: The ggrassy area adjacent to the Cheyenne Botanical Gartens in Lions Park. Take the Central Avenue exit from I-25 and follow the signs to Superdays. The site will open at 8:00 AM and close generally after 3:00 PM. Please arrive early enough so that armor inspection can begin at 10:00 AM with the tourney starting at 10:30 AM.

The tourney site is DRY. Pets must be on a leash, and under your immediate control. there is a lake very near, so please keep track of your children as well.

You will be allowed to park along the site on Carey Avenue to unload, but you must move your vehicle immediately after unloading. Parkiing will be available in the lots adjacent to Superdays (tell the parking attendant you are part of the entertainment). The earlier you come, the better (closer) the parking.

Revel: Ommediately after the day's activities, a revel will be held at the Gazebo in Lyons park. The cooks of Windkeep will be providing culinary delights to satisfy both the stomach and the soul. The Gazebo is north of the tourney site. There will be directions at the tourney site. The revel site is dry. Please contact the autocrat for revel information.

From the Kingdom Waterbearer

Greetings to all the good gentles of the Outlands,

I am pleased to announce that I have found a worthy successor to my office. Lady Anastasiia Tsaganova (more commonly known as Lady Sasha) is now my "drop-dead" deputy. She is very organized, energetic, and knowledgeable and did a fantastic job running the heavy waterstation this year at Estrella.

The waterbearing at Estrella this year went wonderfully, all because of the great people who enthusiastically stepped forward to work hard and get the job done right. Special thanks to my staff: Lady Mally and Lady Kalara, who worked very long hours to man the archery waterpoint; Lady Lillianna and Lady Maimouna, who took good care of the fencers; and Lady Sasha and Lady Skyleigheaha, who kept the extremely busy heavy waterpoint running smoothly. There efforts would not have been enough without the army of Outlands volunteers who came forward to shoulder the heavy burdens. We had as much help as we needed, which is wonderful and unusual. Thank you, hardworking waterbearers, the Outlands army could not have kept fighting without you there to support them.

A few people who went the extra mile:

THL Delia and Lady Diana made 72 embroideried favors to thank the volunteers (please contact me if you didn't get one), 2 gorgeous waterbags for his Majesty, and a large waterbearer's banner for the waterpoint.

Mistress Rowen and Mistress Claudia were both invaluable help out on the field.

The Shire of Drygestan donated a period shade pavilion that sheltered us in the heat.

Countess Elizabeth O'Burne was everywhere, tirelessly helping with everything.

Mistress Aldyth provided all of that wonderful food that the waterbearers carried onto the field - she managed to feed the entire army for 3 days (Mmmm... remember the peanut butter and jelly wraps?)

My deepest thanks to all who helped.

In service,

Lady Gwenyth Sastre

From the Windhover Bard

Greetings unto the Bards of the Outlands!

Estrella War has come and gone, and a FABULOUS time was had by all. There were so many wonderful bardic activities, I have a hard time imagining how any of our wonderful performers could have been disappointed.

The Crystal Flute/Crystal Fruit Bardic on Friday evening was great fun, and congratulations should go out to our own Mistress Guernen, who won the Crystal Fruit Bardic for her humorous filk. The Outlands Bardic on Saturday night was truly inspirational – over twenty people competed and the performances ranged from the amusing to the sublime, with the Outlands VERY well represented!

Thanks must go out to Mistress Guernen, Lady Safya, House Belshire, House Stagshold and Countess Elizabeth O'Byrne, as well as many others who are FAR too numerous to mention. The generosity and support of the Outlands made it possible for me to attend Estrella War and host the Outlands Bardic despite certain unexpected challenges. Without the help of so many good and fine gentles, the Outlands Bardic would not have been such a success. We should all be proud and grateful to be part of such a caring community.

Greetings Outlanders!

I am pleased to report the Kingdom Regalia of the Outlands had additions this month.

First, I would like to take an opportunity and thank those who have supported our Kingdom with all of their time and effort towards the Regalia. Many ideas are in the works, and we look forward to the continued labors and support of those who are filled with the enthusiasm that our Kingdom has always enjoyed.

At Candlemas, Mistress Galiana fitz William once again awed us with her talents of quilting! She has made and gifted to the Kingdom new hand quilted, color coordinated Throne Covers! Thank you so much for the thoughtfulness and usefulness of these gifts as we greatly appreciate the new covers – and the handwork is spectacular!

Also, Duchess Kathryn submitted the order for Medallions from the artisan's drawings I had listed last month. At Estrella, Her Grace delivered to Their Royal Majesties new, beautiful medallions for our Kingdom's awards. Huzzah and Thank You for your incredible efforts!

If you have any ideas to help continue improving our Kingdom's Glory through new Regalia, please do not hesitate to contact me. I would greatly appreciate your thoughts and input.

The winter revelry and events are winding down and on to our next project!

In Service to the Kingdom of the Outlands,

Countess Cainnleach

From the Archer General

Unto the Archers of the Outlands does THL Duncan Alastair MacRae Archer General send greetings.

Spring is upon us and again it is time for the Inter Kingdom Archer Competition or IKAC. I want to urge all archers to get some IKAC scores in this year. Not only does it help us in the competition but you can derive 2 Royal Round scores out of it so ask you Captain of Archers to run some IKACs.

After consultation with Their Most Royal Majesties Hoegaarden and Chiara there is a modification to the Kingdom Archery Handbook and Officers Handbook. These changes are as follows;

Kingdom of the Outlands Target Archery Handbook Part 3 Section A Subsection 4

Will be amended to read:

Midrealm Winter Archery Shoot

The Midrealm is an SCA-wide tournament devised and run by Forester Nigel FitzMaurice. The exact rules and season for this competition can change from year to year. The standings are published on the Tournament web site.

Outlands participation in the Midrealm is encouraged. Scores are to be submitted by the local Captain of Archers directly to the Midrealm Tournament Website. Rules and season dates will be as published on the Tournament Website. Score submissions will be included in the monthly COA report to the Archer General's Office.

Kingdom of the Outlands Target Archery Officers Handbook Part 2 Section E paragraph 1 will be amended to read:

Royal Round scores should be sent to the DAG-Scorekeeping within two weeks after a shoot. IKAC scores should be sent to the DAG Scorekeeping within 2 weeks after a shoot. Any other out of Kingdom sponsored competition scores should be included in the monthly report to the Archer General.

Kingdom of the Outlands Target Archer Officers Handbook Part 2 Section E paragraph 2 will be amended to read:

Because we participate in tournaments organized outside the kingdom such as the IKAC . For the most current reporting format and requirements, please contact the DAG-Scorekeeping. His/her information is found on the Archer General website.

Kingdom of the Outlands Target Archer Officers Handbook Part 2 Section F subsection 1 paragraph 1 will be amended to read:

Royal Round and IKAC scores must be sent to the DAG-Scorekeeping. The score reports should be sent to the address listed Archer General website. They may be emailed or sent hard copy. Phone reports are discouraged as information may become garbled. Royal Round and IKAC scores must be sent within two weeks of the event. . Any other out of Kingdom sponsored competition scores should be included in the monthly report to the Archer General.

Good Shooting

Estrella Largesse Coordinator THANK YOUs

This year, for Estrella War, I had the honor of working with Their Royal Majesties and Outlanders in coordinating the Largesse gifted to the Other Kingdoms who attended.

Words cannot express the overwhelming and overflowing items crafted and donated by the Fine Noble Gentles of the OUTLANDS!

Please help me to THANK all those whose crafted items were beyond generosity and creativity.
The Caerthen Embroidery Guild: Embroidered Needle cases
The Lampworker's Guild: Glass Buttons for the Needle case closures
THL Gwendolyn MacIver: Woobies with full arms, for the Principle Kingdoms
The Kingdom Scribes: Blanket Illuminated Scrolls
Lord Johannes: Hand crafted boxes
THL Larke del Glen: Hand carved Salt & Pepper Cellars
Baroness Claudia: Claudia Bags for the Salt & Pepper cellars and Queen of Calontir
Lady Jeanne Dyfrigi: Hand painted Note cards for each Kingdom
Molly: Hand embroidered napkins
Brewer's Guild in Caerthe: Fine brews, wines and liquors

THANK YOU!

The Outlands has shared their Largesse throughout the Known World!

On one last note…

At Candlemas two groups, The Barony of Caer Galen and the Shire of Duthaich Beinne Aird, both gifted Toys to the Crown to give to the Children of the Outlands. It was so impressive and well received, and we all appreciate the care and support they are giving to our most precious investment, our Children. The Shire of Duthaich Beinne Aird not only presented toys, but also a phenomenal list of participants who helped create the toys. The toys were all period and they presented the documentation for each as well.

We are truly a generous Kingdom!

In Service,

Countess Cainnleach

From the Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

The snows begin to melt across the land. Tournaments are in the not too distant future. Sharpen your swords, axes and ready your armor for the events of the summer.

If you are not aware, Sir Roger de Gilbert has taken up the position as Southern Deputy EM. Sir Dennis has stepped down to take on other duties and will continue to assist the EM staff in various endeavors. I thank him greatly for his assistance this last year.

Once again, Combat Archery at the war proved significant in battles. The Outlands fielded a fine CA group and I would like to see those numbers continue to grow. Lord Mordrake has taken the reigns of CA quite well and look forward to its growth over the summer.

I will actively be traveling throughout the Kingdom and welcome missives from anyone to discuss the affairs and state of combat in all manners. I look forward to continued growth and prosperity within the combat arena for all.

With that, I bid you all enjoy these warm months of spring and, as always, be safe.

Lavan

From the New Kingdom MOL

Merry Met to all in the greatest of all kingdoms - the OUTLANDS!!!!,

I am Lady Danica Nemanjaviaea your new Kingdom Mistress of the List. Tournament season is coming up and I am here to remind you to remember that to fight in a tournament you must be a member of the SCA (have a current membership card or something to prove that you have a card) and have a current fighter card. For the most part I will carry a list with me and once you are checked off for an event you will never have to show me your cards again - for that event - and I strongly encourage other MoL's to do it that way also.

Since I have been Lady Seuilla's deputy for 2 years I don't think anything will change except for the address. See you all around.

If there are any questions you can contact ladydanican@yahoo.com.

From the Chronicler

Greetings Outlanders!

As I come to the end of my time as chronicler, it is a time to reflect on what has been and to look towards what will be. I must say that of all of the offices I've held in the SCA, this has been the most fun, the most rewarding. I am sad to see my time in this office end. If you've ever had an urge to try anything like this, I highly recommend it – it's a lot of work and a lot of responsibility, but there's an immense satisfaction that comes with seeing the post office clerk taking the bins of finished newsletters.

After a prolonged and difficult search, I present to you my successor, Baroness Emma of Essex. She's very skilled at all of the things she'll need to do to carry out the duties of this office, and she's an all around great person to boot. The Outlandish Herald is in very good hands. We will handle the changeover on the 17th of April at Kingdom Arts and Sciences – meaning that you all still have to deal with me as you get your materials in for the May issue (due April 1st).

I have a lot of people to thank. I must thank first and foremost my best friend and sweetie, Baroness Yazida, who did the sorting and counting for every single issue. I must thank Yazida, Lady Cecily, Lady Anna, Don Carrick, Baroness Katriona, and the myriad (that's a greek word for ten thousand) of other people who helped with folding and stapling, with labeling and stamping. I thank Andreva-Delphine, who handled all of the mailing tasks at the beginning of my time here, and solved the "no postal imprint" crisis with the purchase of a rubber stamp. I thank Baroness Christina, who made the transition smooth and got me into this role without undue stress or concern. I thank Master Tamlene, who handled the financials for me until he left the Kingdom, and has since been available for assistance whenever I needed it.

Looking to the future, there are two policy changes that I feel I must make before I hand over the reins of the office to my successor:

First, as of the publication of this issue, this office will no longer accept paper copy for any announcements or letters; all correspondence must now arrive electronically at chronicler@outlands.org, and I will leave it to my successor to name her preferred format. Five years ago, this was not a workable policy as too few people in the more remote regions of the kingdom had access to e-mail. Today, however, it seems unlikely that any autocrat or officer has none. This will help to minimize omissions and typographical errors.

Second, the issue of funding the Outlandish Herald. With the miracle working printer that does this for me, the Herald costs approximately $700 per issue to print, and another $250 to mail, bringing the cost per issue to just shy of a thousand dollars. If Emma can find a printer to work for this rate, it will be a very lucky thing indeed; most printers want nearly twice that. The stipend from the Corporate Office is only about $900 per issue – close, but not quite there. Every month, we drop a little closer to the red. The Kingdom has had to open its coffers to save the day, something it has done generously, but should not have to do.

To ameliorate this, we will be instituting a policy that mirrors the policy of the Ansteorran newsletter, though in a slightly less intrusive manner. Beginning with the May issue, all groups will be allowed a maximum of six full pages per SCA year (A.S. XXXIX for example) without cost, and thereafter will be charged ad rate for any sort of announcements. This will give any group three events (two half-page blurbs plus one full page per event) without cost before they must contribute. This puts the burden of continued upkeep of the Herald on those who benefit from the Herald's publication most, and will not penalize those who use it less, and therefore seems the fairest way to resolve the situation. This information is now mirrored in the "publication information" section inside the back page.

The Chronicler will keep track of this information, and will inform seneschals of their remaining page count via e-mail after each issue goes to press. I know that this will be a small bit of extra work for Emma as well as the seneschals, but keeping the Herald in the black is neither a frill nor an option, it is a necessity.

I thank the people of the Outlands, the Society Chronicler, and the others who have helped me to arrive at the best way to approach these changes.

Until next month, I remain in service in this capacity…

-Massimíliano

From the Plover Herald

Greetings!

I would like to thank all of those who helped me prepare for the town criers and for those who helped me herald at Estrella War.

First, I would like to thank HE Sebastian Taylor and his people for creating eight wonderful herald's tabards. In addition to HE Sebastian, THL Breisha Taylor, Lady Brena de Marsh, Lord Morgan Railey and Minka sewed these tabards. The tabards made a great impression at War – I had a number of people take portraits of my heralds and me.

I would like to thank Their Majesties and the Kingdom of the Outlands, Their Excellencies of Unser Haufen and Their barony, and His Grace Artan and the Company of St. Martin for paying for the tabards. Duke Artan also proposed the creation of the tabards and designed them.

I wish to thank the heralds and town criers who helped me at War: Master Balthazar, THL Ryan, Lord AEthelwulf, Natasha McDuff and Jim the Pyrate all of the barony al-Barran; THL Aelfraed Hawkmoon of Platfordham Shire; Lord Rowland and Lady Dairine McGregor of the barony of Fontaine dans Sable; and Lady Alesandra Damonte of Hawks Hollow. I would especially like to give a thank you to the two young gentles Chase of Dragonsspine and Colman of Drygestan for working the entire Outlands Prize Tournament without complaint.

In Service to the Crown,

THL Cristobal Vasquez de Narriahondo

Plover Herald

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Look for this to be enforced RIGOROUSLY beginning with the November 2003 issue! Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
